

The Celebration of the 70th MBA anniversary will span three days over Homecoming Week beginning on Thursday, November 1st with the first Finance and Global Economics Forum of the Americas. In advance of the School's annual Homecoming Cookout on Friday, we will host The Future of Business and Technology: Insights & Trends and on Saturday, we celebrate the 20th anniversary of the MBA in Spanish with Growing Business in Latin America & the Caribbean, a pre-game program offered in Spanish.

All four of these spectacular events are free when you register in advance at www.bus.miami.edu/70. Please register separately for each event you wish to attend.
