

Dear Miami Business Staff,

This is the October installment of our monthly staff communication. We have a couple of exciting announcements to share:

First – the all-new, all-digital BusinessMiami magazine is now live. Check it out at <https://magazine.bus.miami.edu>. We are very proud of this environmentally-friendly version which will also allow us to update as we go before the next edition is produced. Feel free to share the link with anyone that would be interested. The magazine is intended for all faculty, staff, students, alumni, parents, or anyone interested in MBS.

Second – the MBS brand campaign is now in motion. The next iteration will be incorporating some of our messaging into the 1st floor of our business school campus. There should be an explosion of color and themes in advance of the upcoming 70th Anniversary/Reunion. Remember, “Tomorrow Lives Here.”

Third – Our 70th Anniversary/Reunion/Homecoming events are Thursday, Nov. 1 – Saturday, Nov. 3rd. The events throughout Friday, Nov. 2nd are not to be missed, ending with the BBQ cookout for all. You should also plan to enjoy the campus festivities with friends and family capped off with the traditional boat burning on Lake Osceola followed by fireworks.

Last – the University has initiated an arrangement with the Wall Street Journal for all Faculty, Staff, and students to obtain a digital subscription. If you are interested, full online access has been setup for MBS. Please go to <https://partner.wsj.com/partner/universityofmiami> to create your account (1 time Activation). Kindly use your CaneID (also known as Blackboard ID or Workday ID). After the activation, you may go directly to WSJ Online.

Please join us in celebrating the following MBS staff members.

1. Jamal Wilson – Admissions Services Representative. Effective start date September 26 , 2018.
2. Kim Migoya was promoted to Associate Director, Graduate Admissions.
3. Andrew Stoner has been hired as Executive Director for the Ziff Graduate Career Center with a tentative start date of 10/29. More info. on Andrew to follow.

Please review and share the following available MBS opportunities with your colleagues.

1. Development Director, Major Gifts, Alumni Relations & Development
2. Program Manager/Operations Manager – Ziff Career Services
3. Assistant Director/Career Advisor – Ziff Career Services
4. Program Manager, Business Analytics and DIRPA – Department of Management Science
5. Manager, Academic Affairs – Office of Finance and Administration/Faculty Affairs

A few reminders.

1. The MBS web resource page is now up and functional with new items being posted. Check it out at <https://www.bus.miami.edu/faculty-and-staff-resources/>. You should bookmark this page as a favorite in your browser. Let me know if you have ideas on resources we should add.
2. The next All Staff Administrative meeting is scheduled on Thursday, October 11, 2018 at 9AM in the Executive Education Dining Room. The agenda for the meeting is as follows:
 - a. Welcome – Rob Becht
 - b. HR update – Gabrielle Chudnoff
 - c. David Chun – IT
 - d. Maria Otero – Events
 - e. Aurora Goicohea – Staff Advisory Council
 - f. Henrik Cronquist – Faculty Research and why it matters
 - g. Open forum - Q&A
3. If you have kudos or other noteworthy items that we can share with the MBS community, please feel free to send our way so that we may include in future communications.
4. As always, if you have any ideas or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact us directly.

After a nail-biter last weekend, the Canes are still on a roll. Keeping fighting - Go Canes, Beat Cavaliers!!!

Rob J. Becht, MBA JD

Executive Director – Finance and Administration

305-284-4662

